Story of Cox's Life

James Middletown Cox was three times governor of Ohio—an honor enjoyed by only one other Ohio Man, Rutherford B. Hays.

Born on a farm, educated in the public schools, a printer's devil, a school teacher, a newspaper reporter, a private secretary to a congressman, owner, manager and proprietor of two newspapers and member of congress for three years and three times governor of his state in his record to date.

Business success paralleled his political achievements and thru his own efforts Cox has amassed a fortune. Mr. Cox became the leader of the Democratic party in Ohio in 1912, when he was nominated for governor. As one who had brought radical changes in the state constitution, he took the field in its behalf. His first term as governor was devoted chiefly to forwarding the enactment of laws to put the new state constitution into effect.

But Ohio evidently was not prepared to assimilate all the new laws, for Cox was defeated for re-election. But his party renominated in 1916 and he was re-elected for a third term in 1918, being the only Democrat to win in Ohio.

Legislation for which Governor Cox is best known includes a model workmen's compensation law and a child labor law which have been extensively copied by other states. Educators of the country say the Ohio school code, enacted under Governor Cox's direction, will live as a monument to his achievement.

Mr. Cox was born in Butler county, Ohio, in 1870. He attended district school and held his first position as a teacher of the school in which he took his first lessons. He spent his evenings and holidays in printing office. In a few years he received his first assignment on the reportorial staff of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

After ten years with the Enquirer he went to Washington as a private secretary to Congressman Paul Sore, of Ohio. At the close of this service, he purchased the Dayton Daily News, borrowing most of the money to pay for it. Later he purchased the Springfield Daily News. He was first elected to congress in 1908.

He recently purchased the farm near Jacksonburg upon which he was born and is making it into a modern farm home where he expects to live on retirement from public office. He married and has four children.

Cheerfulness is about the only contagious thing we aren't afraid of.

"Dead Fruit"

Leaving baseball, football and boxing aside, there is no longer a great disparity between woman's and man's athletic prowess. But whether the women should be permitted to compete with the men in the golf, tennis, shooting, and other championships is debatable ground. If the men oppose it, one can hardly blame them, for it must be years before victory over a woman will be regarded as anything but "dead fruit," and defeat as anything but a disgrace.

—And Love.

Like a great poet, Nature produces the greatest results with the simplest means. These are simply a sun, flowers, water and love. Of course, if the spectator be without the last, the whole will present but a pitiful appearance; and, in that case, the sun is merely so many miles in diameter, the trees are good for fuel, the flowers are classified by stamens, and the water is simply wet.—Hulse.

Rival.

It seems strange that this English word which means a competitor of some sort should have come from the Latin word "rivalis," pertaining to a stream. But we can easily imagine that the neighbors who lived along the river bank and used the same source for water would sometimes quarrel about their rights and perhaps become enemies.
